AFTERNOON TEA

Afternoon Tea

at FOXHILLS

Foxhills has always been a place shaped by people.

Across the resort, every day unfolds differently. Morning swims become long lunches. Tennis turns into cocktails in The Manor. Families explore the grounds while others find quiet moments on the golf course, in the spa, or gathered around a table together.

This afternoon tea was created to capture that feeling.

Look closely and you will discover scenes from across Foxhills woven throughout the artwork and crockery. Each plate and cup tells part of the story, inspired by the people, places and rituals that shape life here every day. Together, the collection becomes a small world of Foxhills laid out across the table.

Created exclusively for Foxhills by resident artist Annabel Hocking, the artwork celebrates the spirit of the club and resort, with seven hidden CJs along the way. Can you find them?

We hope this afternoon tea offers not just a moment in The Manor, but a glimpse into the wider world of Foxhills.
