About the classes

Adventures club

Join us for 2 Saturdays per month in the woodlands, activities such as matchless firelighting, campfire cooking, chelter building and much much more

Baby club

A quiet hour in the playroom, reserved for mums, Dads And babies, have a catch up, and let your little ones interact with other babies.

Board game café:

Join us in the woodie with a selection of board games on offer. Come and challenge your friends and our pavilion assistants and see who comes out on top!

Craft social

Take a break from homework or studying, and get creative in this informal session. Focus on mindfulness and wellbeing through crafting, including activities such as painting, sewing jewellery making and much more.

Homework club

Every day, after school, the homework club is a place for children to work on their tasks, reading and other projects in a casual setting, collaborate with their peers, and seek support from our pavilion assistants

Pottery

Join our local ottershaw potter and learn how to hand mould terracotta clay. All items will be returned the following week having been fired in the kiln.

Freezone Football:

Join us in a free session, and have a kick about on one of our transformed tennis courts

Messy play:

Sessions for babies and toddlers with their parents that are fun-filled with a different range of sensory and messy play activities for little ones to build, imagine, experience, investigate, explore and create. The best part is that we'll take care of the cleaning up!

Lets get craftin 5-7 & 8-11
